Act 23 Act anent Disposal of Sale Proceeds of Maxwell House

1. The General Assembly approve the action of the Committee on Eventide Homes in clearing the operating deficit for 2003 from the remaining capital held on behalf of Maxwell House, from the funds held by the Board in Glasgow in the Royal Bank of Scotland account, and from part of the proceeds realised from the sale in November 2003.

2. The General Assembly, whilst acknowledging that the sale proceeds of Maxwell House are ordinary revenue receipts, recognise the Church's continuing responsibility to demonstrate the truth of the Gospel by practical social care, and direct that three hundred and fifty-five thousand pounds be set aside from the receipts for specific social responsibility purposes.

3. The General Assembly allocate one hundred and fifty thousand pounds from the above sum to the Thomas Chalmers Housing Association Ltd. as follows: fifteen thousand pounds per annum for five years toward the work at Westland Court, Glasgow, beginning in 2004; and seventy-five thousand pounds to be invested for the use of the Milngavie project; or, if either project should fail or lose its Christian input, for other uses as determined by the Stewardship and Policy Committee at that time; the interest accruing being accumulated and used to reduce the cost to the Church of the honorarium for the Chaplain at Westland Court.

4. Furthermore, from the specified sum, the General Assembly also allocate two hundred thousand pounds to the Grant Aid Scheme administered by the Social Responsibility Sub-Committee Council of Reference, to be made available at the rate of twenty thousand pounds per annum beginning in 2004, with any accruing interest or unspent funds accumulating in the scheme. The General Assembly authorise the Public Questions Committee at their next meeting to adjust the remit of the Grant Aid Scheme so as properly to administer these increased funds, and instruct the Public Questions Committee to report fully on these adjustments and the overall operation of the scheme to the next Assembly.

5. Furthermore, from the specified sum, the General Assembly also authorise a gift of five thousand pounds without interest to the Scottish Churches Housing Agency, to be paid at the rate of one thousand pounds per annum beginning in 2004, this being in addition to the normal annual subscription.

6. The General Assembly direct that the remaining revenue from the sale of Maxwell House (namely ninety-three thousand, four hundred and sixteen pounds and fifty-eight pence) be used to strengthen the Church's capital reserves.

Act 37 Act authorising the Sale of the Colegio San Andres and other Purposes

The General Assembly renew Act XXI, 1981, in the following terms:

The General Assembly authorise the General Trustees, upon advice from the International Missions Board, to sell the buildings occupied by the Colegio San Andres together with the other properties, inclusive of the Edificio San Andres, situated on Avenida Du Petit Thouars 179, Lima 1, or alternatively arrange for the development and subsequent sale of the site. They direct that the proceeds of such sale should be applied to the acquisition and building of a new school.

The foregoing authorisation is conditioned upon the Trustees and the Stewardship and Policy Committee being satisfied with the financial arrangement of the whole transaction and the General Assembly direct the Board to consult with the General Trustees and the Stewardship and Policy Committee on necessary measures of interim-financing of the project and for providing assistance to the Trustees' Nominees. The Stewardship and Policy Committee and General Trustees are authorised to advance such 'bridging loans' as may be necessary and available.

The General Assembly, desiring that the fabric of churches, halls and manses be preserved from decay, that the cost of repairs be lessened by constant attention to the condition of buildings, and that the church be not burdened by the upkeep of buildings no longer fully utilised, enact that;

(1) the Deacons' Court of each congregation shall give regular attention to, and promptly see to the making good of, defects in all congregational property;

(2) the Committee on Buildings Maintenance shall prepare, and revise as necessary, an appropriate Buildings Return to be filled in by the Deacons' Court at the time of each quinquennial visitation; this Return shall give details of the properties held by the congregation, of the Buildings Certificate required in (4) below, and of major repairs carried out since the last such return;

(3) at least three months before the date on which the Presbytery shall resolve to conduct a quinquennial visitation, the Presbytery Clerk shall send to the Clerk of the Deacons' Court a copy of the Buildings Return specified in (2) above so that it may be timeously filled in and returned before the visitation takes place;

(4) the Deacons' Court shall prior to each quinquennial visitation of the congregation by the Presbytery provide the Presbytery with a Buildings Certificate dated in the previous three months and under the hand of a qualified person, such a Certificate attesting that the fabric of all congregational property is in a good state of repair, subject to such defects (if any) as exist and are specified; the Deacons' Court shall also complete the Buildings Return;

(5) the Presbytery shall consider the particulars of the above-mentioned Buildings Certificate and Return, and shall transmit a copy of the Buildings Return to the Clerk to the Buildings Committee, with their comments thereon. In particular the Presbytery shall formulate a view, conjointly with the congregation, as to whether sufficient use is being made of each property as to warrant its continued upkeep;

(6) the Committee on Buildings Maintenance shall not approve of applications for buildings grants and loans on property for which a duly completed Buildings Return has not been provided during the previous five years;

(7) if a congregation does not have a Deacons' Court, the Finance Committee shall assume the functions and responsibilities allocated above to the Deacons' Court;

(8) Acts V, 1939 and VIII, 1948 are hereby repealed.

Act 32 Act anent Church and Manse Building Fund

The General Assembly authorise the Committee on Buildings Maintenance to give at its discretion grants and/or loans from the Church and Manse Building Fund in the following circumstances:

- (1) where assistance is needed with the cost of a survey required in connection with a quinquennial visitation Buildings Certificate;

The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Thurso and Reay Free Church Congregation and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the Church building and glebe adjoining at Shebster, the proceeds of sale to be invested with the General Trustees and the income to be made available to the congregation. The transaction is to be carried out by the Church's Law Agents. The General Assembly receive the Petition from Tongue congregation and grant its crave. The General Assembly renew the authorisation of the sale of the ground at Strath Tongue on the same terms as granted by the Assembly of 1979 (Act XXVII 1979). The General Assembly receive the Petition from Farr Congregation and grant its crave. The General Assembly modify the terms of their findings recorded in Act XXVII 1979 and Act IV 1980 relative to the sale of the manse at Farr so as to permit the use of the proceeds for the improvement of general facilities and accommodation in the Church at Bettyhill.

Act 6 Act anent Re-application of Congregational Monies

The General Assembly receive the Petition from Coll congregation and grant its crave. They amend Act IV, Class II 1984 paragraph 2 to the extent that in the years 1987, 1988 and 1989 the whole of the interest on the net proceeds of the sale of the manse will be paid to the congregation.

March 1987

Act 1 Act anent Sale of Property

The Commission of Assembly receive the Petition from Knox Free Church of Scotland, Perth and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the Church buildings and direct that the proceeds of the sale be lodged with the General Trustees until required for the provision or erection of an alternative building, the income meantime to be accumulated with the capital and any surplus remaining after the purchase or erection of a new building to be held for behoof of, and the interest thereon to be paid to, the Congregation. The transaction is to be carried through by the Church's Law Agents. The Commission direct that no sale be finalised unless alternative accommodation is available.

May 1986

Act 2 Act anent Sales of Property

The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Congregation of Thurso and Reay, and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the Reay Manse at Shebster, subject to such consent as may be necessary from the Superior. They direct that the proceeds of sale be invested with the General Trustees and the income applied to congregational funds, and that the transaction be carried through by the Church's Law Agents. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Congregation of Greenock and grant its crave. They approve the sale of the Manse at 165 Newark Street and direct that the proceeds of sale be invested by the General Trustees until required for the purchase of a more suitable Manse, the income meantime being added to the capital. They direct that the titles of the new Manse be drawn in terms of the Model Trust Deed and that the transaction be carried through under the supervision of the Church's Law Agents. Further, with regard to the residue of the sale of the former Church presently held by the General Trustees the Assembly authorise that up to £4,000 be made available, if required, for the purchase of a new manse, and the remainder of these funds continue to be set aside for use in connection with the Church building on its replacement. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Congregation of Berneray, Harris, and recognising that the contract already entered into was due to misapprehension and that the parties concerned acted in good faith simply remind them of the need to secure well-founded information before entering upon such procedures. They grant the crave of the Petition and authorise the sale of the Mission House at Berneray, Harris, the capital realised to be applied in the first instance to the repair of the Church and any surplus to be lodged with the General Trustees and the income applied to congregational purposes. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the congregation of North Knapdale and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the Church and grounds at Tayvallich subject to such consent as may be required from the Superior for any change of use contemplated by the Congregation or a prospective customer. They direct that the proceeds of sale be invested with the General Trustees and the income applied to congregational funds. The transaction is to be carried out by the Church's Law Agents.

Act 3 Act anent Re-application of Congregational Money

The General Assembly receive the Petition of the Congregation of Glenurquhart and Fort Augustus and grant its crave. They grant access to the capital already held by the General Trustees for behoof of the Congregation, and they amend the terms of Act III 1985 to allow access to the capital to be realised from the sale of the Glenmoriston Manse in order to repair and maintain the properties of the consolidated charge; the remainder of the proceeds to be invested for behoof of the Congregation, and interest paid to the Congregation.

October 1985

Act 1 Act anent Sale of Property

1. The Commission of Assembly receive the Petition from the Congregation of Raasay and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the manse at Raasay, the Proceeds to be invested by the General Trustees until required for the acquisition of more suitable premises, the interest meantime being added to capital: any surplus to remain invested and the interest applied to Congregational Funds.

2. The Commission of Assembly receive the Petition from the Finance Committee of the North Knapdale Congregation and approve of its crave. They approve of the sale of the manse at Carsaig and of the investment of the proceeds with the General Trustees. They commend the congregation's desire to aid the congregation of Islay in the renovation of the Church and manse at Islay and approve of the proposal to meet half of this cost up to a maximum of £5,000 from the proceeds of sale should the work of renovation be undertaken. They authorise the General Trustees to hold the remaining funds for behoof of the congregation of North Knapdale paying the interest to the congregation. Should the congregation cease to exist the General Trustees are to allocate the capital equally between the Sustentation Fund and the Eventide Homes Committee of the Free Church of Scotland. The Commission advise that the transaction be carried out by the Church's Law Agents.

3. The Commission of Assembly receive the Petition from the Elgin Finance Committee of Elgin Congregation and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the present Church and site the proceeds of sale to be invested by the General Trustees pending the purchase or erection of a more suitable place of worship, interest accruing in the meantime to be added to capital until the replacement building has been acquired and satisfactorily furnished: thereafter any surplus to be held for behoof of the congregational funds. The transaction is to be carried out by the Church's Law Agents.

Act 2 Act anent Sale of Property

The Commission of Assembly receive the Petition from Mull Congregation and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the Manse at Craignure subject to such consent as may be necessary from the Superior. They direct that the proceeds of sale be invested with the General Trustees until such time as they are required for the purchase of an alternative Manse, and the income for the time being to be added to capital until such time as required for the purchase of a Manse in a more suitable area. The transaction is to be carried through by the Church's Law Agents.

May 1985

2. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the congregation of Glenurquhart and Fort Augustus and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the Church and Manse at Glenmoriston subject to obtaining such consent as may be required from the Superior. Proceeds of the sales shall be dealt with as follows:
(a) the proceeds of the sale of the manse will be invested by the General Trustees for behoof of the congregation and the income paid to the congregation;
(b) the proceeds of the sale of the church will be made available as necessary to the congregation for the upkeep of their other properties; insofar as not required the proceeds will be invested for behoof of the congregation and the income paid to the congregation. The transactions will be carried out by the Church's Law Agents.

3. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the congregation of Fort William and grant its crave. They authorise sale of the present manse and of the grounds in whole or in part as may be deemed most expedient for the acquisition by building or purchase of a more suitable residence. The proceeds of sale will be lodged with the General Trustees and made available for the erection or purchase of a new manse and any surplus capital will be invested and the interest paid to the congregation. The transaction will be carried out by the Church's Law Agents.

4. The General Assembly receive the Petition from Kennoway and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the Church and Hall at Kennoway, the proceeds to be lodged with the General Trustees for behoof of the congregation of Kirkcaldy, Kinglassie and Glenrothes and the interest along with that of money presently held by the Custodiers of Titles for behoof of the Kennoway congregation to be made available in equal amounts to the congregation of Kirkcaldy and Kinglassie and Glenrothes for congregational purposes.

5. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Deacons' Court of Creich, Kincardine and Croick and grant its crave to the following extent. They authorise the sale of the Church at Kincardine and of the Hall at Spinningdale; subject to the Congregation obtaining the necessary waiver from the Superiors of both properties of the relevant prohibitions in the respective titles; the proceeds of the sales to be lodged with the General Trustees and drawn upon as required by the congregation for maintenance and improvements of the congregation's other buildings. Such capital sums as are not so required will be invested and the proceeds paid to the congregational funds. The transactions are to be carried out by the Church's Law Agents.

6. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Deacons' Court of Assynt and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the manses in Lochinver and in Stoer and direct that the proceeds of sale or sales be lodged with the General Trustees and invested for behoof of the congregation with interest accruing being added to capital: the capital with accrued interest shall be used for the acquisition of a suitable manse or, should one of the present manses be retained, for its renovation and upgrading to acceptable standards: such capital as is not so required will be retained and the interest paid to congregational funds. The transaction will be carried out by the Church's Law Agents.

7. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Congregation of Keiss and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the manse at Keiss and direct that the proceeds of sale be lodged with the General Trustees to be invested for behoof of the congregation: the congregation may draw upon one quarter of the capital realised for the maintenance and/or improvement of their Church building: the interest accruing shall be paid to congregational Funds: and the transaction will be carried through by the Church's Law Agents.

Act 18 Act anent Proceeds of Sale of Properties in Thunder Bay - amending Act 3 1978

The General Assembly noting the changed situation in regard to Thunder Bay and the decision of the Synod of North America that the proceeds of the sale of properties should be transferred to the care of the General Trustees of the Church amend Act 3 Class II 1979 so as to read as follows from the second sentence: "The proceeds of sale shall be invested by the General Trustees for behoof of the Overseas Board and the Synod of North America. There shall be added to Capital annually from interest accruing such sums as shall prevent depreciation by inflation. The remaining interest shall be made available to the Overseas Board only for the benefit of their work in North America and Capital shall be drawn upon only by authority of the Board in consultation with the Synod of North America." These arrangements are subject to Canadian Law.

Act 1 Act anent Sale of Property

The Commission of Assembly receive the Petition from Wellgate Free Church of Scotland, Dundee and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the Church building and direct that the proceeds of the sale, or any compensation payable, be lodged with the General Trustees until required for the provision or erection of an alternative building, and the income meantime to be accumulated with the capital; any surplus remaining after the acquisition of the new building to be held for behoof of, and the interest thereon to be paid to, the Congregation. The transaction is to be carried through by the Church's Law Agents. The Commission of Assembly receive the Petition from the Kilmuir and Stenscholl Congregation and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the present Manse at Kilmuir and direct that the proceeds of the sale be lodged with the General Trustees until required for the purchase or erection of an alternative building, the income meantime to be accumulated with the capital. Further, with regard to the Mission House at Staffin, as this property is held on a Lease and negotiations are currently in progress with the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries for Scotland whereby a title may be granted, the Commission of Assembly direct that, if and when such a title is granted, the Congregation may sell the building, the proceeds of sale to be lodged with the General Trustees on the same basis as the proceeds of the sale of the Manse at Kilmuir.

Act 4 Act anent Sale of Property

1. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Finance Committee of Fortrose. The General Assembly receive the petition from the Fortrose Congregation and grant its crave. They authorise the Congregation to sell the ground, surplus to their requirements, at a suitable distance to the west of the Church Hall, the proceeds of sale to be applied to the general funds of the Congregation, but the Assembly recommend that the Congregation consider the wisdom of selling the ground in such a way that they can maintain future control of its use.

2. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Congregation of Coll and grant its crave. They authorise sale of the present Manse subject to (a) the retention by the Congregation, if they are so minded, of sufficient ground for the erection of a replacement Manse when the time is ripe and (b) such consent as may be necessary from the Superior. They direct that the proceeds of sale be invested with the General Trustees (subject to the retention from the proceeds by the Congregation of £1,000 to be expended by the Congregation on repairs to the Church building), one-half of the income from the balance to be applied to Congregational funds and the remaining one-half to be accumulated with the capital. The transaction is to be carried through by the Church's Law Agents.

3. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Congregation of North Knapdale and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of such portion of the Church ground at Tayvallich as is required, provided that the ground sold does not adversely affect the amenity or the security of the remainder, and provided that such consent as may be necessary is obtained from the Superior. The General Assembly further direct that the proceeds of sale be invested with the General Trustees and the income applied to Congregational purposes, the transaction to be carried through by the Church's Law Agents.

The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Berriedale Congregation and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the church and Manse at Dunbeath, either together or separately, subject to the appropriate consent from the Superior to the change of use, the proceeds of the sale to be lodged with the General Trustees and the income to be utilised for Congregational purposes and the transaction to be carried out by the Church's Law

Agents. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Congregation of Watten and Bower and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the manse at Bower subject to the appropriate consent from the Superior to the change of use, the proceeds of the sale to be lodged with the General Trustees and the income to be utilised for Congregational purposes and the transaction to be carried out by the Church's Law Agents. The General Assembly receive the Petition from Kilmuir-Easter and Logie-Easter Congregation and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the Church and manse at Kilmuir-Easter subject to such consent by the Superior as may be necessary for change of use. They direct that the proceeds of sale should be lodged with the General Trustees for behoof of the Congregation, the Presbytery of Tain and the Church Extension Committee. The income from the proceeds shall be apportioned as follows: One quarter to the consolidated charge of Rosskeen and Kilmuir-Easter; and three quarters to the Church Extension Committee and to be in the first instance available to the Presbytery of Tain for extension work within their bounds. It is further directed that, should extension work initiated by the Presbytery in Milton of Kildary in the parish of Kilmuir-Easter so prosper as to justify the erection or acquisition of buildings, the capital invested may, on application to the General Assembly, be made available for this purpose. The transactions are to be carried out by the Church's law agents.

Act 4 Act anent Release of Congregational Monies

The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Presbytery of Lochaber and Lorn regarding monies held under the name of Glenorchy. They grant the crave of the Petition to the extent that the income from the total now held in capital be paid to the Presbytery to assist congregations within the bounds. Should the bounds of the Presbytery be altered this finding shall apply to the Presbytery within whose bounds Glenorchy shall be included. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Deacons' Court of Buccleuch and Greyfriars and grant its crave. They authorise the release to the congregational treasurer of monies held in the name of the congregation in the Custodiers of Titles account. The General Assembly receive the Petition from the Congregation of Farr and grant its crave. They modify the appropriate finding of the General Assembly included in Act 27, 1979 to the extent that the congregation shall have the use of the interest on the proceeds of the sale of the manse at Bettyhill for the purpose of securing the Church there in a wind and watertight condition. Thereafter interest accruing shall be used as directed in 1979.

Act 21 Act anent Sale of Colegio San Andres and Related Properties

The General Assembly authorise the General Trustees, upon advice from the Foreign Missions Board, to sell the buildings occupied by the Colegio San Andres together with the other properties, inclusive of the residential flats which comprise the Edificio San Andres, situated on Avenida Du Petit Thouars 179, Lima 1. They direct that the proceeds of such sale should be applied to the acquisition and building of a new school and ancillary buildings in a more suitable location. The foregoing authorisation is conditioned upon the Trustees and the Finance, Law and Advisory Committee being satisfied with the financial arrangement of the whole transaction and the General Assembly direct the Board to consult with the Finance Committee on necessary measures of interim financing of the project and for providing assistance to the Trustees' Nominees. The Finance Committee and Trustees are authorised to advance such "bridging loans" as may be necessary and available.

October 1979

Act 2 Act anent Sale of Property

The Commission of Assembly receive the Petition from the Free Elder Memorial Church and grant its crave. They authorise the Congregation to sell the Manse, 48 Netherby Road, Edinburgh and, as the title stands in the name of the General Trustees of the Church, they further authorise the General Trustees, with consent of the Congregational Trustees, to grant the appropriate Conveyance to the Purchaser, the proceeds of sale to be retained meantime by the General Trustees and thereafter applied to the purchase or erection of a more suitable Manse, the title being taken in the name of the Congregational Trustees in terms of the Model Trust Deed; any income accruing to be added to capital and any surplus after acquisition of a new manse to be utilised for congregational purposes. The transaction is to be carried out by the Church's Law Agents. The Commission of Assembly receive the Petition from the Congregation of Kiltarlity and Kirkhill and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the Manse building at Kiltarlity, subject to such consent as may be necessary from the Superior, the proceeds to be lodged with the General Trustees and applied to the erection of a more suitable residence on adjoining ground belonging to the Congregation; any income accruing to be added to the capital. The transaction is to be carried out by the Church's Law Agents. This approval is given on the understanding that the proceeds of sale will approximate to the likely cost of a new manse. The Commission of Assembly, waiving irregularities, receive the Petition from the London Congregation and grant its crave. They authorise the sale of the present manse at 306 Brownhill Road, London, in order to acquire a more suitable residence. This authority is given subject to the following provisos:

- (1) The Church's Law Agent shall be satisfied that there is no legal barrier to sale.
- (2) The new manse shall be held in terms of the Model Trust Deed or as nearly as English Law allows.
- (3) The income of sale shall be applied to the purchase of the new manse any surplus in the transaction being utilised for the Congregation's Building Fund.
- (4) The transaction shall be carried out under the supervision of the Church's Law Agent.

March 1980

Act 4 Act anent Sale of Property at Kilwinning

The Commission of Assembly note the intention of the Kilwinning Congregation to sell the property known as Deanfield, Almswall Road, Killwinning. They note also that the Kilwinning Congregation was duly admitted as a Congregation of the Free Church of Scotland on 2nd October 1956 by the Presbytery of Glasgow pursuant to a decision of the Commission of General Assembly of date 8th August 1956 and that title to the property referred to deduces from the Trustees for the Associated Anti-burghers Congregation of Original Seceders through the proceedings of the Commission of Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland in August 1956. The Commission of Assembly advise that the proceeds of sale insofar as capital is not required for improvements to congregational property be lodged with the General Trustees and the income applied to Congregational Funds and that the transaction be under the general supervision of the Church's Law Agents.
